070711-N-0318S-003 DETROIT (July 11, 2007) - Lt. Cmdr Phil Winteringham, executive officer of the U.S. Naval Sea Cadet training ship Grayfox (TWR 825), describes how the ship's air-conditioning plant works to two delayed entry personnel that will be attending engineering field A-schools after graduating from Recruit Training Command. Grayfox is providing tours and brief underway periods as part of Detroit Navy Week. Detroit Navy Week is one of 26 Navy Weeks planned across America in 2007. Navy Weeks are designed to show Americans the investment they have made in their Navy and increase awareness in cities that do not have a significant Navy presence.
